Student_21187979	several of the labs fail to help you understand what the code is actually doing and simply has you place a large chunk of code in a file and then go view the results.

Classroom and Logistics

Classroom comments (if any)

Student_21190038	The remote desktops were a little slow to respond, but other than that the resources were great.
Student_21191554	After launching a lab, I had to reduce the zoom of the internet window to see the contents. The contents were so large at 100% normal zoom. Even after reducing zoom, contents were still large and I was always scrolling left/right to see a line of code... screen refresh was slow.. like baud modem slow.
